SM ENERGY ANNOUNCES OFFERING
OF $100 MILLION OF SENIOR CONVERTIBLE NOTES DUE 2021

DENVER — (BUSINESS WIRE) — August 8, 2016 — SM Energy Company (“SM Energy”) (NYSE: SM) announced today that it intends, subject to market and other conditions, to offer $100 million in aggregate principal amount of a series of senior unsecured convertible notes due 2021 (the “Notes”). SM Energy expects to grant the underwriters in the offering a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional $15 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes. SM Energy intends to use the net proceeds from the offering to pay the cost of the capped call transactions described below and the remainder to pay a portion of the purchase price for its recently announced acquisition of all of the outstanding membership interests of an entity holding undeveloped leasehold interests, producing wells and associated infrastructure assets in the Midland Basin of west Texas from Rock Oil Holdings LLC. If this acquisition does not close, SM Energy intends to use the remainder of the net proceeds for general corporate purposes.

The Notes are expected to pay interest semi-annually and will be convertible into cash, shares of SM Energy’s common stock or a combination of cash and shares of SM Energy’s common stock, at SM Energy’s election. The Notes will mature on July 1, 2021, unless earlier converted or repurchased in accordance with their terms prior to such date. Prior to January 1, 2021, the Notes will be convertible only upon the occurrence of certain events and during certain periods, and thereafter, at any time until the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date. The interest rate, initial conversion rate and certain other pricing terms of the Notes will be determined at the time the offering is priced by SM Energy and the underwriters.

In connection with the pricing of the Notes, SM Energy expects to enter into privately negotiated capped call transactions with one or more of the underwriters or their respective affiliates (the “option counterparties”). The capped call transactions are expected generally to reduce potential dilution to SM Energy’s common stock upon any conversion of Notes and/or offset any cash payments SM Energy is required to make in excess of the principal amount of converted Notes, as the case may be, with such reduction and/or offset subject to a cap. If the underwriters exercise their over-allotment option, SM Energy expects to enter into additional capped call transactions with the option counterparties.

In connection with establishing their initial hedge of the capped call transactions, the option counterparties or their respective affiliates expect to enter into various derivative transactions with respect to SM Energy’s common stock concurrently with or shortly after the pricing of the Notes. This activity could increase (or reduce the size of any decrease in) the market price of SM Energy’s common stock or the Notes at that time.

In addition, the option counterparties or their respective affiliates may modify their hedge positions by entering into or unwinding various derivatives with respect to SM Energy’s common stock and/or purchasing or selling SM Energy’s common stock or other securities of SM Energy in secondary market transactions following the pricing of the Notes and prior to the maturity of the Notes (and are likely to do so during any observation period related to a conversion of Notes). This activity could also cause or avoid an increase or a decrease in the market price of SM Energy’s common stock or the Notes, which could affect holders’ ability to convert the Notes and, to the extent the activity occurs during any observation period related to a conversion of Notes, it could affect the number of shares and value of the consideration that a holder will receive upon conversion of the Notes.

Wells Fargo Securities, BofA Merrill Lynch and J.P. Morgan are acting as joint book-running managers for the offering. The Notes are being offered and will be sold pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement that was previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This offering is being made only by means of a prospectus and related prospectus supplement, both dated August 8, 2016. Before you invest, you should read the preliminary prospectus supplement and accompanying base prospectus in that registration statement for more complete information about this offering.
